

Friday
January 9, 2009
Today is an A Day

Seniors – if you have not already done so please bring in your $30 dues to the main office.

Are you interested in learning about the criminal justice system? Current juniors and seniors: the Law and Order Cadet training program will be held this summer. This program aims to help young people gain knowledge regarding training and responsibilities of law enforcement officers. Interested students should see their guidance counselor for an application and more information.

The Lost and Found in the front office will be donated to charity at the end of the week. Please make a point to stop in and see if anything belongs to you.

Two exciting speech contest opportunities are coming up (both with Cash Prizes!) The Rotary Speech Contest is on Thursday, January 15, at 3 p.m. in room 115 and the Lions club Speak Out contest will be on Wednesday, January 21st at 7 p.m. at the Colchester Senior Center. See Mrs. Bahrenburg for details.

Attention Seniors: Please check the list in the café to get your senior superlative picture taken.

The Alpine Ski Team has a race at noon and are dismissed after TA at 9:25 a.m.

As a reminder, please be sure to check the due dates on your library books. If you have an overdue book please stop by the library today to return or renew.

PSAT Scores are in, please make an appointment with your guidance counselor.

Speech Team may rehearse with Mrs. Bahrenburg today.