Reteaching Expectations

The first days returning from a break are one of the best times to reteach schoolwide and classroom expectations. This helps refocus students after returning from a break. Some possible ways to revisit schoolwide expectations include:

Drawing pictures of people following school rules.

Modeling and practicing safe, respectful, responsible behavior in the classroom, cafeteria, hallway, and/or playground.

All School Meeting, Thursday 1/10/19

Integrated Field Review

All CSD schools will be participating in the Integrated Field Review on January 24th.

This means we'll have some fellow educators from nearby districts visiting us on the 24th.

Plan to go about business as usual on January 24th, knowing that our visitors may ask anyone questions.

All CSD schools will be visited to provide commendations on our work and recommendations on how we can improve. We covered the IFR at our January 3rd Staff Meeting. Here is the powerpoint from that meeting;

Reminders and Upcoming Events

Bowling Celebration: Our January celebration will be Bowling at Spare Time on January 17th and 18th. Lets make sure we are acknowledging positive behaviors with tokens frequently this week so that Oscar can be full in time for our January Celebration. Providing additional recognition of safe, respectful, and responsible behavior is also important when we are returning from a break.

We will need to send home a permission slip prior to students going bowling. Hopefully Oscar can be full by Monday of next week so that we have a few days to get permission slips home to families. Here is some additional information about bowling: bowling logistics

Interim SBAC: It is time to begin planning for the interim SBAC again. Here is a doc with some information about both the math and literacy interim SBAC. Good news! On the ELA SBAC we are no longer needing to hand score! The program now scores automatically.

Yearbook Pictures: Our PTO is hard at work putting together the 2018 - 2019 Malletts Bay School Yearbook. Please share any pictures from this year in the yearbook folder: MBS Yearbook Pictures

Welcome to MBS, Marty Welsh and Adam Bagdon!

Mary Welsh began last week as a new evening custodian.

Adam Bagdon is a new Behavior Interventionist.
